

Jugat Guru Singh Khalsa has been an IKYTA Certified Kundalini Yoga Teacher and Kundalini Yoga Lead Teacher Trainer for Level 1 and Level 2 at Miri Piri Academy in Amritsar, India for the last 15 years. He grew up and studied under the guidance of Yogi Bhajan, and has dedicated his life to serving the mission of Yogi Bhajan by helping to shape the next generation into leaders and teachers of this amazing technology.

Jugat Guru Singh has studied and practiced sound and naad under several masters in India for the last 12 years, and had the privilege of sitting directly with Yogi Bhajan to enrich his understanding of this vast science.

He has been mentored by Guru Dev Singh, and helps host the Reman and Kundalini Surjee international japa retreats annually.

Besides teaching, Jugat Guru Singh is also the principal of Miri Piri Academy, and a member of the Chardi Kala Jetha who travel extensively teaching and performing Kirtan at youth camps and in many Sikh communities around the world and at the Golden Temple.

Jugat Guru Singh was sent by Yogi Bhajan to live and work at Miri Piri Academy in Amritsar, and has made a life there with his wife for the last 15 years. They now have three beautiful children.